DIVISION TWO (continued)

B189133 Los Angeles Unified School District (Certified for Publication)
v.
Great American Insurance Company

We reverse the order granting the District's motion for summary adjudication on the issue of contract interpretation. We remand the matter to the trial court to consider extrinsic evidence relevant to interpretation of the contract and to determine the scope and extent of Hayward's contractual obligations in light of any admissible extrinsic evidence. We reverse the order granting the District's motion for judgment on the pleadings and barring Hayward's causes of action for rescission. We reverse the order precluding Hayward from maintaining, as a matter of law, a cross-action for breach of contract based on misrepresentation or nondisclosure of material facts. We reverse the order concluding that Great American is jointly and severally obligated with Hayward to repay the District sums paid in excess of $4.5 million. We affirm the order determining that the completion agreement was not illegal. We reverse the order dismissing Hayward's and Great American's affirmative defenses. We reverse the attorney fee award. The parties will bear their respective costs on appeal.

Chavez, J.

We concur: Boren, P.J.
Doi Todd, J.
